Notification for AcSIR – RMIT, Australia Joint (Cotutelle Ph.D) Program, 2022

Applications are invited from students currently enrolled for the Ph.D program of AcSIR at any of its Academic Centres/Associate Academic Centres for the AcSIR – RMIT, Australia, Joint PhD (Cotutelle) Program, 2022.

ABOUT THE FELLOWSHIP

The selected students have to undertake between 6 to 12 months of the Program at RMIT's Melbourne Campus. RMIT would provide scholarship to cover the full cost of tuition fee and a standard stipend at standard RMIT rates, for the duration of Candidates' attendance at RMIT. RMIT will also bear the expenses of the return air-fare by economy class, but such travel must be booked with the prior approval of RMIT.

The selected candidates have to bear the expenses for visa, accommodation & internal travel in Australia, health and travel insurance, and other incidental expenses.

ELIGIBILITY

1. The applicants, registered for Ph.D under AcSIR at its academic centres/associate academic centres and having a valid National-Level Fellowships, are ONLY eligible to apply. Applicants with permanent employment (including industry-sponsored) are not eligible to apply;
2. The following category of applicants would be exempted from the minimum eligibility condition of “having a valid National-Level Fellowships”:
 - a) Project Assistants enrolled as Regular Students in AcSIR PhD program
 - b) Students enrolled in PhD (Engineering Sciences).
3. The applicant should have successfully completed the AcSIR - PhD comprehensive examination with at least 2 consecutive semesters of Ph.D enrolment (as on January 31, 2022). Applicants in their 3rd, 4th, 5th or 6th semester of AcSIR-Ph.D enrolment are only eligible to apply (i.e., Admission batch of August 2019, January 2020, August 2020 or January 2021).

HOW TO APPLY

The completed application form, both in hard & soft copy, should be submitted to the AcSIR Coordinator of the institute where the applicant is enrolled for Ph.D. The applicants must attach a one-page synopsis of their on-going Ph.D work with a tentative PhD thesis title, highlighting the objectives and the intended scope of PhD research work (in not more than 250 words) along with their application. Self-attested copies of all the academic information (degrees, marksheets, awards, etc) should be attached with the application.

The applications are to be emailed by the AcSIR Coordinator to the Associate Director (Student Affairs) (ad_studentaffairs@acsir.res.in) with a copy to the Senior Manager (arpita.acsir@acsir.res.in) latest by April 06, 2022.

The scope and extent of provisions are liable to change by AcSIR or RMIT.

Important Notes for Attention:

1. Mere eligibility does not entitle any applicant for the induction in the program
2. Director, AcSIR may relax any condition of eligibility in any special case, situation or merit including any relevant inputs or opinion of concerned RMIT Officials.
3. Even if a candidate is selected under the program, final enrolment would be subject to the concurrence of concerned RMIT Officials.
4. Candidates enrolled in the joint Ph.D. program would have to comply the degree requirements of both RMIT as well as AcSIR as applicable and amended from time to time till the candidates complete the degree program.
5. It is advisable that candidates should have an IELTS with threshold Score thereof, as, besides other values, it could be helpful in many respects including convenience to get Visa for Australia
6. Enrolment and pursuance of the program would be completely provisional unless the candidate is issued the Visa and visits RMIT for the pursuance of the program.
7. Other standard and extant terms and conditions apply.
